J. M. BURNESS, Postmaster.

A New Arrangement.

On the 1st of next January a change will be made in the proprietorship of the Gazette Office by the withdrawal of Mr. Bowen. This change will render absolutely necessary a settlement of the subscriptions and other accounts due the present firm. We hope our friends will give this matter their immediate attention, and leave as few debts as possible for settlement after the change is made. It will be easier and better to all concerned to settle before that time, as a settlement must be made.

TREASURER'S RECEIPTS.

We have printed a very superior article of TREASURER'S RECEIPTS, with stubs, which we will sell for 75 cents a hundred. The utility of this kind of receipts will be seen by examining them.

Webb & Lee have the latest styles of JEWELRY.

The Brothead Independent says: "We are sorry to learn that Mr. Bennett, formerly employed on the railroad in this place, has experienced the sad misfortune of losing both his legs while in the act of coupling the cars."

Notice.—There will be an adjourned meeting of Washington Eugene Co. No. 3, at their house, on Saturday next, at seven o'clock P. M. Every member is requested to be present. M. H. CURTIS, Ass't. Foreman.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A brother of George E. Jones, formerly of this city, was killed recently on a railroad in New Jersey.

COMMISSIONER.—R. H. White, of this city, has been commissioned as lieutenant colonel of Col. Barstow's cavalry regiment.

FOR FINE WATCHES call on WEBB & LEE.

The Soldier's Aid Society will meet at Mrs. I. C. Sloan's on Friday, Dec. 13th, at 2 o'clock, P. M. The "Mite Society" at the same place in the evening.

MARIA F. CLARK, Sec'y.

Notice.—There will be a special meeting of Rescue Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, at their rooms, Friday evening, Dec. 13th, at half past 7 o'clock. A full attendance is requested. J. H. SAUNDERS, Sec'y.

If you want to see a splendid assortment of SILVER GOODS call on WEBB & LEE.

The Tredegar Rifles are very thankful to the Ladies' Volunteer Aid Society of Milton, for a generous package of socks, double-gosaws, handkerchiefs, drawers and shirts to be used for the sick. Also to the citizens of Milton for a hundred very fine testaments, which were presented this morning by Chaplain Tilton. The people of Milton will ever be remembered by the members of Co. K with feelings of the liveliest gratitude.

PILNY NORCROSS, Capt. Co. K.

Through the efforts of the Louisville Journal, and in view of the fact that little or no evidence has been found against them, ex-senators Gwyn and Calhoun Benham, of California, have been released from Fort Warren.

The return for this favor is the abuse of the administration and hostility to the policy of the government which can hardly be exceeded by the Charleston Mercury or Richmond Enquirer.

GENERALLY DISSATISFIED.—The Milwaukee News is dissatisfied with the proposed confiscation of rebel property, with the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, with the exclusion of treasonable papers from the mail, and with every measure calculated to give efficiency to the prosecution of the war. It is particularly horrified about "abolitionism," and would vastly prefer the revival of the democratic party to the suppression of the rebellion. This is entirely natural. One of the editors of the News was an editor of the New York Daily News when that eminently patriotic paper was excluded from the mails, and was obliged to shut up shop in consequence of its openly avowed secession character.—The Milwaukee News is very little, if any, better than its suppressed New York namesake.

FOR SILVER SPOONS AND FORKS, call on WEBB & LEE.

CHRISTMAS OR NEW YEAR'S PRESENT.—Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machine, a valuable and appropriate testimonial of a father to his daughter; a son to his mother; a husband to his wife; a brother to his sister.

This gift is profitable and available a lifetime. It is equal to ten seamstresses. An annual dividend of 100 to 500 per cent (on its cost) may be obtained in use—by its possessor. CYRUS MINER, Agent, delisted Main Street, Janesville.

FOR HOLIDAY GOODS, call on WEBB & LEE.

PAY UP.—In another part of our paper will be seen a notice to all that are indebted to Fidelity & Bro. to call and settle before the 1st of January next, and save costs.

MARRIAGE OF A GRAND DAUGHTER OF DAVIES, BOONY.—Capt. Elmore Davis, of the United States Army, and Miss Boone, daughter of Major A. G. Boone, Indian agent, and grand-daughter of Daniel Boone, the celebrated backwoodsman of Kentucky, as Byron only, were married at Fort Wise, Colorado territory, recently.—Hannibal Messenger.

FOR HOLIDAY GOODS, call on WEBB & LEE.

MEN wanted for the 10th Missouri Regiment (Col. M. John C. Phillips) to be attached to Mulligan's Brigade.

To Our Debtors.

It will be seen by a notice in another column, that on the first of January next there will be a change in the proprietorship of the Gazette. The NECESSITY of a settlement of ALL our accounts will be apparent to all who will give the subject their attention, and as our own convenience will be materially promoted by a settlement before the dissolution of the partnership, and the interest of no debtor will be injured by doing in season what must come at last, we hope there will be no request or attempt at delay. Mr. Wilcox will devote his time to this matter, and as there are a large number of persons to settle with, let each one be prepared when called on. No one will be turned out of the office if he calls here for that purpose.

Plated TEA SETS, Castors, Cake Baskets, Forks and Spoons, at WEBB & LEE'S.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHES.

Solomon Bell has left with the Ottawa (Ill.) Republican a sample of ordinary sorghum syrup, and a sample of the same clarified in Belcher's sugar refinery, in Chicago. The refined article is pronounced by good judges to be equal to golden syrup at 80 cents per gallon, and the expense of refining is not more than 10 per cent. Mr. Bell proposes to join with others and send to Chicago a quantity of the crude syrup to be refined.

The plain black uniforms prescribed by military regulations does not please a number of chaplains, who, having sported shoulder straps and gilt buttons, are loth to relinquish them. The most, however, those who labor unobtrusively for the spiritual interest of the men—do not find fault with it.

A new style of swindling has been discovered in New York. A well dressed man calls upon undertakers who have buried wealthy individuals, pretends to be the afflicted family's agent, gets the bill for coffin, burial, etc., presents it to the lawyer settling the estate, forges the undertaker's receipt, and decamps with the money. The net profits of a recent imposition of this nature were $225.

The 1,135 horses condemned by the board of survey at St. Louis, have been sold under the hammer by the quartermaster, and brought prices varying from $20 to $45. These horses have been in the service some six weeks or two months, and cost the government originally $115 to $128. Another sacrifice in the same way is to be made during the coming week. A number of contraband horses are also to be publicly sold.

A volunteer who prides himself upon the domestic acts he has learned during camp life, writes home to advise the girls not to be in a hurry to marry, for the boys will return in a short time, and the girls can then get good husbands who can cook, wash and iron, and do general housework, or work in the garden, or run errands for their wives.

A Friendly Notice.

All persons indebted to the undersigned for Meat, at all times, are notified to come in and settle with the same without delay. K. B. BEAT, November 24th, 1861.
